

Curriculum Vitae

Education	Bachelor of Laws, University of Otago: 2002 Admission to the Bar: May 2003
Legal Career	Meredith Connell: 2003 - 2007 Treasury Solicitor's Office, London: 2007 - 2008 Russell McVeagh: 2008 - 2014 Barrister: 2014 - present
Distinctions	"Young Lawyer of the Year", NZ Law Awards, 2005

Barrister

- Assisting senior barristers with a range of High Court and District Court civil and criminal litigation.
- Appearing in High Court and District Court proceedings.

Russell McVeagh (Senior Solicitor)

- Civil litigator appearing in High and District Court proceedings (including appeals), Tribunals, arbitrations and expert determinations.
- Advising corporate clients on various aspects of commercial litigation including disputes involving contracts, leases, forestry rights, trusts, elder care, insurance.
- Advising and acting on regulatory processes and proceedings, including health and safety advice and representation; fraud; investigations by the Health and Disability Commissioner; Coronial Inquiries/Inquests and crime.

Treasury Solicitor's Office - London

- Managing and assisting on numerous High Court judicial review and Court of Appeal proceedings.

Meredith Connell (Crown Prosecutor/Regulatory Litigator)

- Crown prosecutor appearing in jury trials, defended hearings and appeals etc.
- Conducted civil and regulatory litigation on behalf of ACC, Commerce Commission, Ministry of Health, Health and Disability Commissioner, Health Practitioners' Disciplinary Tribunal; Medical Council and District Health Boards.